

Associated Press

Waits in Havana

New York Attorney James B. Donovan, above, who is in Havana attempting to negotiate the release of 1113 Cuban invasion prisoners, was unable to confer with Prime Minister Fidel Castro yesterday. Informed sources in Havana said Castro had called off the scheduled meeting and that there was no indication when the two would meet.

CPYRGHT